

Geeti is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker/Supervisor (LCSW-S), offering culturally-affirming psychotherapy for diverse populations in Texas. Geeti identifies as a cisgender, heterosexual, 2nd generation biracial woman of Indian and Iranian descent, and specializes in working with Highly Sensitive People (HSPs) from multicultural backgrounds. Geeti uses she/her pronouns.

Some of Geeti's specialty areas include relationship issues, co-dependency, living with medical conditions, women's issues, and healing from trauma. As a trauma survivor, Geeti understands firsthand how complex the healing journey can be.

Geeti is also a Certified Yoga Therapist (C-IAYT), Reiki Practitioner (RP, IARP certified), and trained Clairvoyant. She holds a perspective both as an alternative healer and a traditional psychotherapist.

In her personal life Geeti loves dancing, being in nature, and enjoying art of any kind. Relationships are important to Geeti and she spends as much time as she can with loved ones.
